Tracking Hurricanes

Name: _____ Date: _____

What were the worst hurricanes to slam the United States? In this Planet Diary activity, you'll track and compare some of our nation's most powerful hurricanes.

Directions

- Print this Atlantic Hurricane Tracking Chart. Use it to track the hurricanes listed in the chart in the Workspace below.
- Start with Hurricane Katrina at the top of the list. Notice the color code across the top showing hurricane categories. Use the map's latitude and longitude to draw Katrina's track on the chart you printed. Use the colors shown on the map.
- Read the information about Katrina above the map (on the left). Use it to complete the Katrina row on the table.
- Click each of the other hurricane names on the table. Add it to the tracking chart and the table.
