iLit Family Letter

Grade 6, Unit 6

Dear Parent or Caregiver:

In Unit 6 of the iLit program, your child is engaged in many learning activities that support mastery of the English Language Development Standards (ELD Standards) and the Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts (CCSS for ELA). The ELD Standards and the CCSS for ELA are aligned. Accordingly, aligned ELD Standards and CCSS for ELA for this unit of instruction are cited together in parentheses within this letter. ELD Standards are cited first, and CCSS for ELA second.*

During Unit 6, students read the historical account Kids on Strike by Susan Campbell Bartoletti (PI.6.6; RL.6.10). This nonfiction book tells the history of child workers in the United States. Up until the early years of the twentieth century, children worked long hours every day. This was happening in different parts of the country, from coal mines to cotton mills. After many years of being oppressed, children got together and organized to demand fair treatment and improved living and working conditions. Students read about the different strikes that took place and the impact they had. Students learn and reflect on the importance of leadership. As students read this heartbreaking and inspirational book, they explore this question: What makes some people lead the way?

Students also read many short fiction and nonfiction texts (PI.6.6; RL.6.10, RI.6.10) in Unit 6. As they read and discuss the unit literature, they cite textual evidence that supports analysis of the texts (PI.6.6; RL.6.1, RI.6.1); summarize a text (PI.6.6; RI.6.2); use context clues to determine the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words (PI.6.6; L.6.4); acquire and use grade-appropriate vocabulary (PI.6.12; L.6.6); and demonstrate an understanding of verbs and verb phrases (PII.6.3), adverbs (PII.6.5), word relationships and nuances in word meaning (PI.6.8; L.6.5).

In addition, students evaluate language choices (PI.6.7; L.6.1), choose words to support their opinions (PI.6.11; W.6.1, L.6.1), and identify text structure (PII.6.1; RI.6.5). Students also write an explanatory essay (PI.6.10; W.6.2) and present it to an audience (PI.6.9; SL.6.4). In addition, they engage in collaborative discussions on a variety of topics, including the ideas they encounter in the unit literature (PI.6.1, PI.6.5; SL.6.1).

To support your child's learning during this unit, here are some suggestions for at-home activities:

- To help your child expand his or her thinking about the unit theme, discuss some people you consider leaders in your community. Talk about why they are leaders and how they inspire you and other people to follow them.
- Watch or listen to the news with your child. While doing so, note one or two challenging or unfamiliar words that are used. Ask your child what he or she thinks each word means based on the context in which it was used. Then have your child use a dictionary to check his or her understanding of the word.
- During this unit, your child will be writing an explanatory or informative essay. Ask what the topic of your child's essay is and what information he or she wants to share with an audience. Pose questions about the topic that may stimulate your child to provide more detailed information.

Thank you for your support of your child's learning.

Sincerely,
