<h3>Explore Lesson-Level Resources</h3>  The screenshot shows the 'US History Interactive' interface. On the left, there is a sidebar with navigation options like 'Home', 'Browse', 'Classes', and 'My Library'. The main content area is titled 'Lesson 1: The Peoples of the Americas'. It features a 'Teacher Resources' section with a 'Select multiple items' checkbox and a dropdown menu. Below this, there are two sections: 'Connect' and 'Investigate'. The 'Connect' section includes a 'Start Up: Learning About American Indians' resource. The 'Investigate' section includes 'Lesson 1 eText: The Peoples of the Americas', 'Flipped Video: American Indian Cultures and Environment', and 'Interactive Map: Native American Culture Regions of North America'. Each resource has an 'Assign' button. A red arrow points to the 'Select multiple items' checkbox.	From the topic-level options, select a lesson to explore the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Connect: Start Up Activity ● Investigate: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Lesson eText link ○ Flipped Video ○ Interactivities (Map, Gallery, timeline, 3-D Model, etc.) ● Project Imagine resources (not available in Magruder’s American Government Interactive or Economics) ● Synthesize: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Lesson Synthesize ● Reading Support <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Primary Source and Reading Guide ○ Lesson Summary/Lesson Summary Audio (English and Spanish) ○ Leveled-Lesson Summaries ● Demonstrate: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Lesson Assessment eText ○ Online Lesson Quiz ○ Editable Lesson Quiz ● Additional Resources <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ 21st Century Skills Tutorials ○ Biography ○ Hip Hop Click Teacher Resources to review the resources, such as answer keys and support materials.

- Click Cancel (if you are just practicing) or click Assign to assign content to your students.

Explore How to Create a Playlist

From the topic or lesson-level options, check the boxes next to the desired content you wish to include in a playlist. Click Add to Playlist. Then in the Add to Playlist box, click Create New Playlist. Type a title and description, then click Create Playlist.

Playlists can contain a unique combination of content that can be assigned at any time to your students. It's a great way to organize what you want to include as part of your classroom. It can also be used to organize differentiation support for a particular group of students.
